

Dear Sirs:

I am alarmed to learn that you are considering lifting the ban on cross-ownership of media outlets. This would be against the public interest. The public wants, needs, and deserves MORE diverse media options, not less. Freedom of the press has long been taken for granted by Americans, but it is becoming increasingly obvious to a growing majority that our mainstream media has been bought out, often, and is keeping us adequately informed. Please consider.